Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Saturday, August 15th

All are welcome to join us as we celebrate with 8:00am Mass at Mater Dolorosa in Independence.

On August 8, the Catholic Church celebrates the feast day of St. Dominic Guzman, who helped the cause of orthodoxy in the medieval Church by founding the Order of Preachers, also known as Dominicans.

“This great saint reminds us that in the heart of the Church a missionary fire must always burn,” Pope Benedict XVI said in a February 2010 General Audience talk on the life of St. Dominic.

Born in Caleruega, Spain around the year 1170, Dominic was the son of Felix Guzman and Joanna of Aza, members of the nobility. His mother would eventually be beatified by the Church, as would his brother Manes who became a Dominican. The family’s oldest son Antonio also became a priest...

Dreading the spread of heresy, Dominic began to think about founding a religious order to promote the truth. In 1204 he and Bishop Diego were sent by Pope Innocent III to assist in the effort against the Albigensians, which eventually involved both military force and theological persuasion...

In 1214, Dominic’s extreme physical asceticism caused him to fall into a coma, during which the Virgin Mary is said to have appeared to him and instructed him to promote the prayer of the Rosary. Its focus on the incarnation and life of Christ directly countered the Albigensian attitude towards matter as evil.

During that same year, Dominic returned to Tolouse and obtained the bishop’s approval of his plan for an order dedicated to preaching. He and a group of followers gained local recognition as a religious congregation, and Dominic accompanied Tolouse’s bishop to Rome for an ecumenical council in 1215.

The council stressed the Church’s need for better preaching, but also set up a barrier to the institution of new religious orders. Dominic, however, obtained papal approval for his plan in 1216, and was named as the Pope’s chief theologian. The Order of Preachers expanded in Europe with papal help in 1218.

The founder spent the last several years of his life building up the order and continuing his preaching missions, during which he is said to have converted some 100,000 people. After several weeks of illness, St. Dominic died in Italy on August 6, 1221. He was canonized in 1234 by Pope Gregory IX.

Jesus the Way; Jesus the Truth; Jesus the Life...

Does God ever abandon his children? This question can be a hard one to wrap our heads around. We know that a loving Father never abandons His children, but what if they abandon him? This was the question among some Gentiles in the first century when they spoke about the Israelites. See, when St. Paul was writing his Letter to the Romans, there was a growing arrogance among the Gentile (non-Jewish) followers of Christ. The belief among some Gentiles was that, because many Jews had rejected Christ, then God had rejected Israel as His people. This, however, is far from the truth that we read in Paul’s letter to the Romans.

In verses four through five, Paul reminds the people of the favor that God has shown Israel throughout the centuries. The Jewish people remain beloved because of God’s covenant with them, His gifts and His call are irrevocable (Romans 11:28–29) He points to God’s never-ending covenant with His people.

“It was not because you were more numerous than any other people that the Lord set His heart on you and chose you...” (Deuteronomy 7:7)

The Israelites were chosen by God in His mercy, but not because of their own merits. Although many Jews rejected Christ as the Messiah, this does not mean that God would reject them as His people. On the contrary, throughout the Old Testament the Israelites repeatedly rejected the commands of the true God, they even worshiped a golden calf. Yet God never turned away, for His mercy endures forever.

So, how does this apply to us? We can trust that God’s mercy and forgiveness are without end because He keeps His promises. Paul is trying to make the point that if God were unfaithful to the Jews, He could also be unfaithful to us. Of course, God is never unfaithful. The Jews were not abandoned, and neither will God abandon us. Paul ultimately answers our question in Romans 11:1;

“What I am saying is this: is it possible that God abandoned his people? Out of the question!” (Romans 11:1)
